to-day on a charge of robbing the mails and was held in hall of $2,500 for examination on Feb. 25.

According to Post Office Inspector Jacobs, who arrested him, Peterson, three days ago, stole a letter addressed to a Mrs. Shanley, residing at No. 148 West Ninety-first Street. He also got, Jacobs says, a letter addressed to Grace M. Riddle at No. 69 East Fifty-ninth Street and took from it a check from the City Paymaster for $158.

This check, it is charged, later was cashed at Lord & Taylor's by a woman accomplice of Peterson, who ordered $23 worth of merchandise and went away with the change. In Peterson's pockets when he was arrested was a check Daniel Frohman had intended for his tailor. Twenty-second Street, was paid $29.35 last Monday evening. Her married sister, Mrs. Mary Ventiglia, was with her, for Margaret had complained that men were following her on the streets of late.

The elevator was crowded; the girle were separated, and when Mary got to the street Margaret was no-where in sight. The family wept, nedified the police and prayed, Detectives Fitspatrick and Donohus found a truckman who remembered seeing the pretty girl being helped into a taxicab.
